Announcement of volunteers arrival: New weltwaerts team from Germany

Dear Mr. Chairman (Dear Daniel)

Dear CDC members

Dear Chipunga community

Two weeks ago I was invited to attend the weltwaerts training seminar in the very northern part of Germany (roughly about 1000km away from the place where I live). The new partner (replacing GIZ) is called "artefact" and its home is in the city of Glücksburg (if one translates Glücksburg directly into English you get: Glück = luck or fortune and burg = castle). So luck is covered by a castle; which might be a good initial sign for this partnership organisation indeed!

Well, at the mentioned seminar I met Mona (from the city of Munich), and Hannah (from the city of Oldenburg) for the very first time. Both agreed to take a snapshot which you can see below (Hannah to the left and Mona in between of Hannah and myself).

They are travelling to Malawi by early November and are in a state of great expectancy with regards to their responsibilities at Chipunga. Malawi and Chipunga will be a foreign, new and exotic environment to them. May I ask you to give them a very warm welcome. Hannah and Mona will help at the school and pre-school respectively. On top of that I'm happy to pre-announce that another German teacher is willing to come to Chipunga Primary School by February 2014.

With best regards on behalf of the German managing committee,

Dr. Jens Diedrich
President GRACE charity
